KEATS.

With Illustrative Designs by WILL H. LOW. Uniform with "Lamia." Folio. Extra cloth, $15.00; Japanese silk, $25.00; morocco, $25.00.

Another superb volume by Will H. Low, who so successfully illustrated Keats's "Lamia" two years ago. The present work is treated in a similar style with "Lamia," the volume containing a choice selection of Keats's Odes and Sonnets. Mr. Low has spared no effort to surpass his former achievement, having given fifteen months' time and study in Florence, Italy, to the collection of the proper material and the thorough prosecution of his work. There will be 16 full-page drawings and 100 pages of text embellished with floral designs, the whole issued uniform in size with "Lamia," and bound with an elaborate design in gold.

This beautiful poem of rural life written in Goldsmith's simple, easy and graceful style, is one of the most familiar and universally popular in the English language. It affords an excellent field for illustration, and the artist has shown the best taste in the selection of subjects as well as rare talent in their treatment.

THE WIDE, WIDE WORLD.

By ELIZABETH WETHERELL. Complete in 1 volume. Illustrated by Frederick Dielman. Cabinet 8vo. Printed on laid paper. Cloth extra, $2.50.

The interest of this story, its literary excellence, and pure, wholesome, moral tone have won for it a place in almost every home. Though first published more than a quarter of a century ago, it still remains a general favorite, and to-day very few, if any, American novels are more widely read or exert a better influence. Mr. Dielman has chosen some of the most characteristic and striking scenes, and his etchings add very materially to the attractiveness of the story.

Literary Notes from The Century Co.

THE LINCOLN history in The Century, by the private secretaries of Mr. Lincoln, Messrs. Nicolay and Hay, will deal during the coming year with the political and military history of the early period of the war. New light will be thrown upon certain events of that period by the publication of correspondence and other documents never before printed, and unknown to but a small circle. The historians now enter upon a more important and personal part of their narrative. The publication of this history has brought an increase of 25,000 subscribers to The Century.

THE WAR SERIES in that magazine has given it 75,000 new subscribers, probably the greatest gain from any one feature in the history of magazines. The series will virtually close with the November number. Future papers on this subject will be of a general sort, as: "Colonel Rose's Tunnel from Libby Prison," "Hard Times in the Confederacy," etc., etc. General Sherman's Article on "The Strategy of the War" will appear in an early number.

MRS. FRANCES HODGSON BURNETT will contribute a short serial to the coming volume of St. Nicholas for Young Folks, which is said to be a worthy successor of that author's famous "Little Lord Fauntleroy," which appeared in St. Nicholas a year ago. Joel Chandler Harris, John Burroughs, Frank R. Stockton, H. H. Boyesen, J. T. Trowbridge, Col. Richard M. Johnson, and Louisa M. Alcott are among the many distinguished writers who will contribute serial and short stories to this famous magazine for young people. It will have an illustrated series on Australia, and Mr. Edmund Alton will contribute "The Routine of the Republic," describing the daily practical workings of the administrative departments,—the White House, etc.

EDWARD EGGLESTON, author of the famous "Hoosier Schoolmaster," will furnish an illustrated novel to The Century for 1887-8. It is a story of early life in Illinois.

GEORGE W. CABLE will contribute a novelette to early numbers of The Century, and Frank R. Stockton has written a three-part story, "The Dusanter," for the same magazine. Mr. Stockton's new novel, "The Hundredth Man," has just been issued in book form.

THE SIBERIAN PAPERS, by George Kennan, will be a great feature of The Century for the coming year. Mr. Kennan has just returned from a journey of 15,000 miles through European and Asiatic Russia, undertaken at the request of the editor of The Century. By means of a circular letter from the Russian Minister of the Interior, Mr. Kennan was enabled to visit nearly every important prison and mine in Siberia. He made the intimate personal acquaintance of more than three hundred exiled liberals and Nihilists, and he will give a thorough account of the terrible convict system of Siberia. His papers will be further enriched by a number of secret official documents and reports. Among such are three from the Governor-General of Eastern Siberia to the present Tsar, and bearing marginal notes and comments made by the Tsar himself upon the state of facts therein set forth. The series will be richly illustrated.

A POPULAR book for young folks—but more especially for one sex—is "The Boys' Book of Sports." It is a beautifully illustrated volume, containing papers on Hunting, Fishing, Archery, Swimming, Riding, The Camera, Base-ball, etc., etc. Price, $2.50. "St. Nicholas Songs" is the very popular music book, containing songs by American composers, Damrosch, Gilchrist, Warren, and many others.

THE POPULAR "Brownie" poems and pictures by Palmer Cox, which have been appearing in St. Nicholas during the past few years, have been collected into a handsome book, entitled "The Brownies: Their Book." This will be one of the most popular books of the season. The price is $1.50; and every one who has been attracted by the interesting adventures of these little people will want a copy.

Miss Jerome's New Triumph,

A BUNCH OF VIOLETS

Gathered by IRENE E. JEROME, author of "Nature's Hallelujah," "One Year's Sketch Book," "The Message of the Bluebird," etc. Original Designs. Engraved on wood and printed under the direction of George T. Andrew. 4to, cloth, $3.75; Turkey morocco, $9.00; tree calf, $9.00; English seal style, $7.00.

In "A Bunch of Violets," Miss Jerome has demonstrated the same delicate taste in her designs, and the same peerless skill in their execution, which she has shown in all her previous works of art. She has rambled through flowering meadows, rich in perfumes, and beside limpid streams and on sunny hill-sides, amid scenery of enchanting variety—gathering her "violets"—immeasurably realistic, delicate, artistic and enrapturing. The pretty "Bunch of Violets" goes forth on its happy mission in a royal quarto, 10x12 inches, bound in English cloth, enriched with a beautiful emblematic design, chastely wrought in black and gold, from the pencil of Ipsen, renowned for his unsurpassed genius as a cover-designer. "A Bunch of Violets" is a pleasing companion to the choice books which have preceded it in the much admired series.

[Sir Walter Scott's Poem,

THE BRIDAL OF TRIERMAIN

With 14 full-page illustrations by Percy Macquoid, R.I. Oblong 4to, size 10½ x 14. Bound in gold cloth, $3.50; Turkey morocco gilt, $9.00; tree calf, $9.00; English seal style, $7.00.

As poetic and romantic as any of the famous Tennysonian "Idylls of the King" is the narrative of Sir Roland De Vaux's adventures in search of his bride, a daughter of King Arthur of the Round Table, who, by a spell of enchantment, had been doomed to sleep "Many a hundred year."

The subject affords abundance of material for illustration, and has been handled with rare skill by the artist in his fourteen truly original pictures. Mr. Percy Macquoid, R.I., was specially selected by the committee of the London Art Union to prepare their annual presentation book for the year, his success in the Royal Academy and in other places having made him a shining light in the temple of art. These illustrations represent the best effects of the modern school of black and white. The paper, printing, and binding of this unique book are of the best.
